Summary of intolerance and violence against trans population

CAMPAIGN
NO more VIOLENCE AGAINST OF TRANS POPULATION

With terrible sorrow we notice how many cases of murders to trans people get in nothing and guilties are unknown in different parts of the World. We summarize reports made by Bulletin T-Informa in the last months and we complete with other cases that were informed by our regional collaborators.

Venezuela: a transvestite murdered was found

This 2th June was found body of Alberto Antonio Triana, 38 years old. His body had received four shots (two in the head, one in the back and one in the jaw). He was abandoned in the yard of a house, at Brisas del Sur I of Cruce Verde. He were dressed with feminine clothes, her hair was long and silver. In his purse were found scissors an hairdresser staff. It is considered that crime was produce for a robbery but cruelty sounds excessive.

Ginsberta, another Brazilian immigrant, was found death in a hole of ten metres long, in Oporto, february 22 of this year. She was a trans woman, sexual worker, homeless, that lived in a building in construction. A group of fourteen teenagers between 10 and 16 year old confessed were guilty. They came from a protected institution conducted by the Catholic Church and supported by Portugal State. Even though crime was brutal (she was hit, torture, tie, rap and abandon still alive) murderers are in a semi-freedom regime and the oldest is in preventive detention.

Holanda

Henriette was a very colorful person, well-known by many in The Hague, where she lived and worked. She had a regular job with a consumer organisation and did a lot of volunteer work as well. She was kicked completely unprovoked by a stranger in the center of the city in the middle of the day. Her injuries were so severe that she never awoke from the coma again and passed away a couple of weeks after the attack. She was 55 years old.

Costa Rica

Carlos Alberto Novoa Guerrero, 32 years old, from Nicaragua and called "Nathaly" and the young Juan Pablo Bolaños Solís, 23 years old, were found murdered by shots the morning of June 23th. We believe it was a crime of hate because they were found inside of a card in which was written "gay".

These are not the only cases, names follows one to another in the face of authorities with no consternation. G are still free and didn't pay for their actions. These crimes are not determine as crime of hite even thought are produced by discrimination and intolerance against trans people that do not belong to binarian social identities.

In the website that come down, a virtual cemetery, are a list of names to victims of murders, terrible crimes ag Human Rights of trans population. Even though this website is not being update, this names should not be for it is necessary to continue fighting in their names and in the memory of another anonymous trans women that systemic violence.
